

Why should I use a pintsch.org email?

Contributed by Administrator
Saturday, 28 July 2007

Because we tend to change internet providers once every so often, and if we do, we have to tell people, we are changing providers. If we centralize with a single e-mail address then we never have to change it and people will always be able to reach us. Many people have been able to do this with yahoo, hotmail, gmail, or msn.com accounts.